

Heading to Ukraine Again

19.11.2025

Tomorrow morning I (Terry) will be heading to Ukraine again to spend the weekend running team leadership development workshops for a local Operation Mobilization team, and leadership development workshops for a local church, preaching on Sunday morning and then heading home Sunday afternoon.

I will not be near the front lines this time, but in the middle of Ukraine, in a city called Vinnytsia. Please be praying for safety for myself, and for Hanka, Miša and Sam. It is normal that someone gets sick before I travel, and this time is no different - Hanka has been sick all week, even so, tomorrow she will be holding an early "Thanksgiving sleepover" for 20 students at her school (complete with a 10kg turkey!).

Please also be praying for wisdom in what to preach to people whose lives have been turned upside down by the war. I will be preaching a sermon based on Paul's letter to the Philippians which he wrote while in prison. Please also be praying for other Gospel opportunities that this trip may afford - either on the long journey to and from Vinnytsia (over 18hrs each way), or with some of my other clients here in the Czech Republic.

I should get home early Monday morning, so plan on sending out an update some time on Monday, and will include other ministry and life news in the update. (last week I was helping a wonderful ministry in Switzerland plan for their future, and the Gospel choir is going very well!)

Thank you for your prayers!
God Bless,
Terry

Once again, thank you so much for your prayers and support this year. It means so much for our family and this movement of God. Thank you for being a part of it!
God Bless!
